

REĀN Insights

REAN Insights provides valuable business insights by helping you continuously listen to your customers. Our platform uses natural language processing (NLP) technology to analyze textual data from external data sources (Facebook, Twitter, blogs, etc.) and internal data sources (CRM, surveys, etc.) to easily identify key drivers of positive and negative opinion. Business and government organizations can avail this capability in their own secure and on-demand environment to keep their insights confidential.

Key Capabilities

Social Analytics

REAN Insights provides a turnkey solution that helps you listen to conversations of your customers, competition and competitors' customers and launch your own analytics to gain reliable insights that add real value to your business.

Integrated Intelligence

We help businesses correlate the social intelligence with their existing business intelligence from internal data sources and translate it into actionable and measurable business benefits that impact every department of the organization.

Market to Influencers

Influencer marketing redefines the power of voice. Leveraging the clout of authoritative, influential voices can be the difference between a ripple and a tidal wave. Our solution finds influencers in your industry vertical, track their online activity, build a comprehensive profile of each influencer, and find 'Engageable Moments' where the influencer activity matches with your own organization's priorities

Maximum Impact Campaigns

We help to design effective campaigns by leveraging the audience, timing, content and the channel. REAN Insights provides key inputs to plan content with an instant hook that grabs people's attention and prompts them to share your message among their social circles. Watch the benefits multiply as the social media ripple effect takes over and makes your campaigns go viral.

Manage Customer Expectations

Our solution helps enterprises to stay tuned to their audience needs, expectations and complaints by understanding and anticipating their needs.

Enterprise Analytics

Integrate social media analytics and monitor it with REAN Insights single point, integrated solution.
